

Gas Stations Of Yesteryear

Back when life was much simpler and gas was 18-25 cents a gallon!!

(or there about) and as low as 17 cents during gas wars.

Old Gas Stations

Old American Gas Stations from all around the country

Some are abandoned, some are restored and many are still in use.

In the next picture, notice the kid jumping on the bell hose.

YOU ever done that?

This next picture looks to be more of a collection of stuff since it's all different sizes & colors, & too close together.

Notice the prices on the next one.

Yes that's only $.34 for Hi test and $.28 for regular.

Oh, don't forget the 9/10% of a penny. LOL

There's one of the next ones still standing (not in use) on Sprague St. in Winston - Salem , N...C.
A Shell station in case you can't figure that out. LOL

Yeah . . . I remember!

and with a fill-up you got.

The gas pumped for you,

Your windshield cleaned,

Oil & fluids checked,

Tires checked,

A free map, if you wanted it.

And greeted in ENGLISH !!!

Yeah! I remember!!!

Enjoy Your Days & Love Your Life.... Because...."Life is a journey to be savored"