50th Reunion.

Okay, so nothing on this at this time. But this is where information will show up as plans are made.

Happenings.

There was a golf tournament held in January at the Trilogy at Glen Ivy with Jeff Eby in charge. The classmates who participated were Louis Mason, Nita (Matthews) and Chuck Hardin, Butch Lightfoot, Jim Jernigan, Joe Martinez, Fred Aguirre, Bob O'Connor, Roger Whiteley, Bob Miller, Joanne (Srack) Mead, Richard Rubio and Jeff Eby. Guests: Kathy Eby and Sally Mason.

Notes from Jeff Eby regarding the tournament: "It was a wonderful day with old friends...prizes, old stories and lies, delicious food, and of course, fun on the golf course. The winners were the team of Butch, Jeff, Chuck and Fred. Longest drive was won by Bob Miller for a blast of over 250 yards. Not bad for a guy that picks up a club once a year. Closest to the pin on the par three was won by Fred Aguirre. Everyone had a great time and Butch is planning another one sometime in October...mark your calendar...you won't want to miss another one of these great togethers."

From Azusa High.

I have contacted the AHS office to have them feed me info on Homecomings, special basketball games, etc.

Here is the first one:

Special Reports.

USC is getting an AHS graduate for their golf team. Lizette Salas has signed a letter of intent with USC. Salas, a senior at Azusa High has made eight AJGA appearances this year, placing seventh or better in each, including three runner-up finishes. She is ranked 14th of the AJGA Polo Golf Rankings with a 74.33 scoring average and was selected as a Rolex Junior All-American second teamer. On top of all that, she took first place in the CIF-Women's Southern California Golf Association's State Championship, making it the first time Azusa High School has won the title. Lizette has been golfing since the age of eight. Let's hear a cheer for Lizette and AHS!
