

Memories of Azusa High School

Name: Carol Roberts (Justice)

Favorite song: Unchained Melody. It is still our favorite. It always reminds us of the sock hops. He is still the best dancer ever.

Favorite subject: Bookkeeping. I got a B in the class thanks to Tom Johnson. He always did my homework. Bless you Tom.

Favorite teacher: Ansnes. I would go behind him in class when he was sitting in his chair and kiss him on his bald head and he would say, "Guess you get an A on your test."

Favorite hangout: A & W Drive Thru with Tommy. He loved showing off his car and of course anything he did was fine with me.

Favorite food: McDonalds. And to think, I would never go there now.

Favorite school activity: Watching the football games and baseball games. Of course that is because Tommy was playing in both.

Favorite summer activity: Going to the beach

Favorite outfit: It was a dark green dress that I had my picture taken in when I was chosen for Homecoming princess.

First car: Chevy Impala convertible

First date: Danny Berlanga

First kiss: Danny Berlanga

Christmas dance date: Tommy

Senior prom date: Tommy

Biggest crush: Tommy Roberts. Oh my gosh did I ever have a big crush on him.

Biggest distraction: Tommy. I had a one track mind.

Fondest memory: Being on the Drill Team and hanging out with Corky, Chuck Peck, and Gordon Gephart when we went to competitions.

Funniest moment: Tommy and I and LoRee Hodge and Jeff Eby were at my house playing Monopoly. We were of course joking around and I took a sip of coke and somebody said something that made me laugh and the whole thing came out my nose. They thought it was funny and I was embarrassed. Bet Jeff doesn't even remember that.

Most embarrassing moment: Tommy had taken me to the Christmas dance and while we were dancing the elastic broke on my slip and it fell down. I picked up dress and all and ran for the bathroom. It took several different people to convince me to go back out. Thank goodness somebody had a pin on them.

Biggest accomplishment (personal): Being chosen for the homecoming. I honestly never expected it.

Best summer vacation: The summer Tommy and I double dated with Rachel and Louie and went to the beach. We would make a big mound and they would lie on one side and we were on the other side.
