

Memories of Azusa High School

Name: Marcia Waagmeester (Johnson)

Favorite song: Lonely Tear Drops By Jackie Wilson

Favorite subject: Homemaking

Favorite teacher: Mrs. Irwin

Favorite hangout: Bakers

Favorite food: Tacos

Favorite school activity: Swimming

Favorite summer activity: Swimming

Favorite outfit: LaDue's Café Uniform (Worked there all through school so I missed a lot of the school activities)

First car: 1952 Baby Blue Chevy. I bought it before I was old enough to drive it.

First date: Christmas dance with a senior whose name I can't remember. Cliff Whiteman might be it ... he was a great dancer, I know as I walked on his feet a lot.

First kiss: Age 12 Darlene Villar planted one on me by surprise on our way home from Slauson school ... so I would stop wondering what it was like. She's so funny. Also I remember that day so well as my feet were killing me, I had my sister's teardrop shoes on and they were a size too small ... that was sure a long walk ha.

Christmas dance date: See first date

Senior prom date: Went with Jack Stewart... As I remember he was a year ahead of me. Also Sharon Turner and her date were with us.

Biggest crush: Mr. Waterman

Biggest distraction: Mr. Waterman I would have followed him anywhere, good thing he didn't know it.

Fondest memory: Having breakfast with Bertha Ascencio Tortilla's & Beans Yummy. She couldn't understand why I liked them so much ... guess we always like what we aren't used to having.

Funniest moment: Almost beating Chuck Hardin at arm wrestling.

Most embarrassing moment: Almost beating Chuck Hardin at arm wrestling.

Biggest accomplishment (personal): Graduating (the only one out of 6 kids to pull it off)
