Favorite activity: Volleyball

Favorite outfit: lavender wool skirt with matching Casmir sweater

First date: a boy from church (with greasy hair)

First car: 1952, 2 door Chevrolet, lowered in the front with cool tail pipes/mufflers ☺ I was styling!

Biggest crush: I had many crushes

Biggest fear: the ocean

Fondest moment: modeling in the Azusa High School Fashion Show held around the pool

Funniest moment: when Maureen and Judy got me drunk. They wanted to try some Screwdrivers after school at Maureen's house. The only thing, they decided it would be funny to put the Vodka in my glass, only. I was pretty crazy.

Most frightening moment: when a boy picked me up and stuffed me in the trunk of his car and shut the lid. I looked like the kid in "Sixteen Candles" when he realized he was stuck in a glass coffee table.

Most embarrassing moment:

Most humiliating experience: when I was trying to explain my headache/hangover to my very religious parents

Biggest accomplishment (personal): since I hated school and was terrified of standing in front of a class, I have to say that being an ROP Banking Teacher for Alhambra High School. What was rewarding was seeing some of the students that I placed in banks, go on and get a job. Also, I am proud to say that I have overcome my fear of the ocean with the help of Chuck
