Our Aztec Marching Band, has made the name Azusa synonymous with success in the field of competitive parades.

Rocky -
It has really been a lot of fun knowing you this year. I wish you the very best of luck in everything you take part in. Really deserve the best.

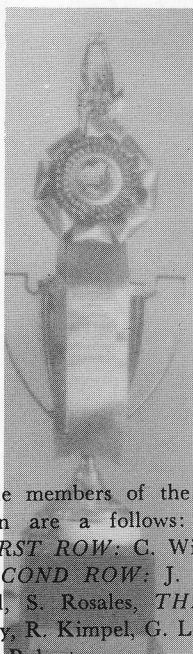

In addition to winning two consecutive sweepstakes at National City, Azusa brought home the "beat music" award an equal number of times. Sweepstakes were also won at the Nonrovia Parade and the Arcadia Invitational Band Review as well as a first place at the [unclear] [unclear].

First place was taken in competition at the Santa Claus Lane Parade in Hollywood in which only ten of the most outstanding Southern California bands participate.

Credit for these unexcelled accomplishments in addition to numerous other performances should be extended to the band director, Mr. Ross Davis, and the members of our Aztec Marching Band.
